

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN RECOGNITION OF KELLIE
GOODMAN SHAFFER

HON. JOHN JOYCE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 23, 2021

Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise to congratulate Kellie Goodman Shaffer of Osterburg, Pennsylvania, for receiving Pittsburgh Professional Women's 2021 Influential Leadership Award.

In her capacity as President and CEO of the Bedford County Chamber of Commerce, Kellie has worked tirelessly to make Bedford County a better place to live and work. Since she assumed her position in 2010, she has consistently advocated for Bedford's small business community and helped to grow our economy.

Amid the COVID-19 pandemic, Kellie has been a tireless advocate for Bedford County's businesses, ensuring that they are able to utilize programs and opportunities designed to support small businesses during this challenging time.

Kellie is an outstanding Pennsylvanian and leader. It is my privilege to work alongside her to serve the people of Bedford County, and I wish her every continued success as she advocates for our community.

RECOGNIZING JOANNE GOODWIN AND HER SERVICE TO THE
SOUTH FLORIDA COMMUNITY

HON. THEODORE E. DEUTCH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 23, 2021

Mr. DEUTCH. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor Joanne Goodwin for her years of dedicated and unwavering service to our country and to the South Florida area. For decades, Joanne has made it her goal every day to make other people's lives around her better, and has enjoyed a record of success throughout her career everyone ought to strive for. Born in 1947, in New York, she made her way to the National Association of Securities Dealers in the mid-1960's where she became a registered trader.

Beginning in 1979, she became the director of the Smith New Court Securities firm in England. She used her expertise in her field to continue to break new barriers for women in her business and a host of others. In later years, Joanne made her way to the South Florida area, settling in Broward County in 1999. She became especially active in the political sphere and worked tirelessly to elect candidates she felt were in the best interest of the American people.

She first volunteered on John Kerry's 2004 presidential run, and became an active member of the North Broward Democratic Club. Beginning in 2010, Goodwin became the president of the club, and has helped the party in-and-around the Fort Lauderdale area continue to blossom and grow each and every year since. She also volunteered on former congressman Ron Klein's campaign for the House of Representatives, and congresswoman LOIS FRANKEL's in the same district.

Goodwin has been recognized for her amazing work before. She has been named Broward County Volunteer of the Year three separate times, in 2013, 2015, and 2017. In 2018, she was given the Broward Young Democrats Lifetime Young Democrat Award. In addition, she remains an avid reader, traveler, and continues her commitment to electing progressive candidates, particularly women, up-and-down the ballot in the future.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Joanne Goodwin for her continued support for Florida's 22nd Congressional district and the broader South Florida community.

RECOGNIZING MAJOR DANIEL
NASKE

HON. KAY GRANGER

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 23, 2021

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Major Daniel Naske of the U.S. Air Force, upon his departure from the Department of the Air Force, Directorate of Legislative Liaison. As Executive Officer, Major Naske serves as the critical bridge between key senior leaders within the Department of Defense, to include the Secretary of the Air Force, Chief of Staff of the Air Force, Chief of Space Operations and Members of Congress and the White House. His responsibilities include leading a 6-member team in executing senior leader communication and resource support responding to 535 Members of Congress. His role as the principal advisor to the Director of Legislative Liaison ensures the Department's strategic communication and vision is synchronized and thoughtfully executed across 6 divisions and 85 members in the planning of over 200 Member engagements on Department programs, policies and weapon systems.

Major Naske is a native of upstate New York and is a Distinguished Graduate from Clarkson University ROTC with a degree in Electrical Engineering. He also holds a Master of Arts in Military History from American Military University, and is a 2019 graduated Defense Legislative Fellow.

Major Naske began his flying career in 2009, and was first assigned as a pilot of the MC-12W reconnaissance aircraft. In 2011, Major Naske became qualified on the C-17A Globemaster III and became an Instructor Pilot in 2013. Additionally, he is a graduate of the esteemed U.S. Air Force Weapons School. Major Naske's exemplary U.S. Air Force career spans more than 2,741 hours in airlift and reconnaissance aircraft, and of that, 1,002 are in combat.

Major Naske and his wife, Caitlin, have two beautiful daughters, Ava and Mara and his family continues to support him and his service to our nation.

We wish Major Naske the best of luck in his new role leading an operational C-17 unit as the Director of Operations. Madam Speaker, on behalf of the U.S. Congress and a grateful Nation, I extend our deepest appreciation to Major Daniel Naske for his dedicated service to the U.S. Air Force, and to our Nation.

COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING JUDGE ANITA SUKOLA
ON THE OCCASION OF HER RETIREMENT

HON. MICHAEL F. Q. SAN NICOLAS

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 23, 2021

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize a true public servant and a fine example of women leadership, the Honorable Anita A. Sukola. I congratulate her on her retirement after 36 years of service to the people of Guam in our government as a respected educator, attorney, and judge.

Early in her career, Judge Anita Sukola maintained a firm commitment to the betterment of our community through education. After graduating from John F. Kennedy High School in 1969, she went on to Washington State University and earned her bachelor's degree in History and Secondary Education. Hoping to foster her same passion for growth and learning in others, she became a full-time educator in the public school system while working towards her master's degree in Administration and Supervision. By 1983, Judge Sukola obtained her Juris Doctor from the People's College of Law and expanded her role in educating our island's youth through her appointment as Deputy Director of the Department of Education. The following year, she was confirmed to serve as the DOE Director and continued her service through this position until 1991. During her tenure at DOE, she simultaneously contributed to our island community as Chairperson for the Government of Guam Retirement Fund Board of Directors for eight years. Her role as an educator also extended beyond the public school system with an assistant professorship at the University of Guam's Criminal Justice program. In this capacity, she helped to develop minds that would eventually go on to pursue careers in various areas of law, police, probation, social work, and other security and military organizations.

Upon closing her chapter with DOE, Judge Sukola established a private practice alongside late Justice Monessa G. Lujan and served Guam through this partnership for nearly 11 years. Prior to her judgeship, she further fortified her legal expertise through service as an attorney with the Public Defender Service Corporation, Legal Counsel for
